Privacy Policy

1. We will collect information only as necessary for business transactions (typical credit card, address, phone, etc); for newsletter distribution (e-mail address); or as required by our Patriot Act compliance policies (various, depending upon the transaction).
2. We will not store personal data such as credit card information, addresses, etc on our Internet web servers.
3. All newsletter e-mail distribution is handled by hand, by a live person.
4. All newsletter unsubscribe requests are handled by hand, by a live person who respects subscriber's wishes.
5. We will not share, publish, or sell our newsletter subscriber list, client list, or other personal information, except as required by law or upon prior approval by the subject of the information.
